

celebration

January 25 * Taylor, TX

You're invited to the Texas Endurance Riders Association (TERA) Convention and Awards Ceremony, Saturday, January 25 at the Williamson County Exposition Center in Taylor, Texas!

TERA is the Texas chapter of the American Endurance Riders Conference (AERC). The group puts on rides and clinics year-round, and is both a distance riding club and an equine educational organization promoting the equine welfare, challenge and adventure for horses and riders of all ages. See our website— txriders.org or cedargrovetx.com/celebration.php for more information!

Where: Williamson County Expo Center, Taylor, TX

When: January 25, 8 - 5 for educational sessions (open to anyone)
7-9 awards banquet (members only)

Presentations: Biomechanics for riders, conformation panel & demo, equine massage, and developing equine emotional fitness

Who: Riders, trainers, & health care providers.
You do not have to be an endurance rider to attend!

Cost: $60 non-members (7 hours of education)
$80 members (education, banquet & awards)

Payment: By Paypal: treasurer@txriders.org or
By Check: Make check payable to TERA, mail to:
Russell Betts (treasurer), 6101 FM 1374, New Waverly, TX 77358.

